

IBC INTERNATIONAL NEW YEAR COCKTAIL

Like any other years, IBC begins its program of the year by inviting members of other business associations/organisations to celebrate the International New Year with us. Unlike other years, where guests were seated for dinner, this time members and guests will have greater opportunity to freely network and exchange business cards the whole evening.

Members of Asian, European and American business associations will be represented. Music and dance floor will be made available, and those with vocal talents are invited to share their expertise with us too.
