

THE IBC BUSINESS OWNERS' ROUNDTABLE QUARTERLY (IBC BORQ)

The IBC Business Owners' Roundtable is an IBC new forum series that allows business owners to discuss current issues and challenges that they face. Organised as an intimate group, with a thought leader as a keynote speaker, this forum provides a platform for interactive and creative exchange. For the next few sessions IBC has partnered iPAC Singapore. (*)

THE INAUGURAL IBC BORQ: Is Your Business At Risk?

Retail shops and food and beverage outlets lost millions of dollars during the recent flash floods at Orchard Road – an event that was completely unexpected. Are you aware of all the potential risks that your business might be exposed to? In this inaugural session, we look at how you can protect your premises, your people and yourself to ensure the success and sustainability of your business.

About the keynote speaker: Mr Willy Lim

Willy is a prominent authority on all things insurance and has given many educational talks on the intricacies of health and life insurance. Together with his risk specialist team, they help iPAC clients audit their insurance portfolios, as part of the lifestyle financial planning process, to ensure that they have adequate cover and are not paying excessive premiums.

Willy has made the education of the public on over-priced and under-performing insurance plans his mission, and his presentations are engaging yet easy to understand by people from all walks of life.

(*) About iPAC Singapore

iPAC is an international financial advice and investment group that has been helping clients achieve their financial and lifestyle goals since its formation in Australia in 1983.
